

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

Programme Outcomes with Relevant Competencies

Overview of programme outcomes with corresponding competencies of Chitkara Business School has been shown in Table 1.

Table 1: Programme Outcomes with Relevant Competencies

| Programme Outcomes | Description of Programme Outcomes | Competencies |
|---|---|---|
| PO- 01. Business Content Orientation | Apply key theories, models, applications, and best industry practices in the local and global business context. | Integrative Learning |
| PO- 02. Analytical & Critical Thinking Orientation | Demonstrate critical thinking & analytical skills in different business-related situations & developing leadership skills. | Critical Thinking Inquiry and Analysis Quantitative Literacy |
| PO-03. Research Orientation | Employ quantitative and qualitative approaches to planning and decision-making in business and solving complex problems. | Problem Solving |
| PO-04. Effective Communication | Demonstrate written and oral skills essential for business communication and effective leadership. | Communication Skills |
| PO-05. Ethical & Legal Orientation | Analyze business and organizational situations using ethical approaches & legal implications to decision making. | Ethical Reasoning |
| PO-06. Social Responsibility & Global Community Orientation | Apply reasoning informed by the contextual knowledge to assess and contribute to the societal, health, safety, environment, and cultural issue at national and international level. | Civic Engagement |
| PO-07. Innovation & Entrepreneurship Orientation | Identify & utilize entrepreneurship/employment opportunities, formulate design, and implement research & innovations in workspace. | Creative Thinking |
| PO-08. Technology Orientation | Leverage new age technology to enable business growth, development, and sustainability. | Technological Proficiency |